Works by Ann Struthers at the Internet Archive

American author Eleanor Ann Struthers (1930-2024) published five volumes of poetry during her rich life of teaching and travel:

Stoneboat (1988)
The Alcott Family Arrives (1993)
What You Try to Tame (2004)
The Kindness of Crocodiles (2018)
Aleppo Burning (2018).

She published many poems in journals and anthologies that remain uncollected. Upon her death, she left more than 1000 poems in typescript and digital files, many of them never published. All of this material is held in the George T. Henry College Archives of the Stewart Memorial Library at Coe College, Cedar Rapids, IA.

The seven volumes presented in the Internet Archive collect all of her poems from her books and the Henry Archives and also a memoir of her two years as a Fulbright Professor of American Literature at the University of Aleppo, Syria.

Using This Directory

Unfortunately, the links below are not "live." You can quickly get a copy with live links by choosing "PDF" from the Download Options below. Or, if you prefer, you may copy the links below and paste them into the URL window in your browser.

And Live with the Animals
Poems that focus upon observing animals and their relations with humans.
https://archive.org/details/animals-ia

From Iowa Outward
Poems exploring Struthers' relations to the places she has known and imagined, including the rural Iowa of her childhood, and places she has visited in the United States, Europe, Asia and the Middle East.
https://archive.org/details/iowa-ia

The Lives of Authors
Poems exploring the biographies of writers, mainly the British Romantics and American authors of the 19th century.
https://archive.org/details/writers-ia

My Aleppo: A Memoir of Syria
Recounts Struthers' residency as a Fulbright Professor of American Literature at the University of Aleppo, Syria.
https://archive.org/details/aleppo-memoir-ia

My Aleppo: Poems of the Middle East
Poems reflecting upon Struthers' travels in the Middle East and her residency as a Fulbright Professor of American Literature at the University of Aleppo, Syria.
https://archive.org/details/aleppo-poems-ia

Of Artists and the Arts
Poems exploring the fine arts and the creative process.
https://archive.org/details/art-ia_202608

Women's Lives
Feminist poems examining the lives of women she has known at home, in her reading, and in her travels.
https://archive.org/details/among-women-ia